

Expect Hot Contest For Aurora Council

Aurora — With the three top seats on the Aurora council filled by acclamation, eight candidates will stage a red-hot election for the six council seats. Dr. Crawford Rose after four years as councillor was acclaimed mayor as Ross Linton retired and two other nominees withdrew.

Deputy-Reeve Asa Cook moved up to the reeve's chair as Reeve C. E. Sparks retired from office due to illness. Ex-Warden Harry Corner received no opposition in his first try for office in Aurora, the only other nominee, Councillor Stewart Patrick, had been nominated for council first.

Returning as candidates for office for another year are Councillors Thomas Swindle, Victor Jones, Charles Davies, and John Sisman, who respectively finished against each other in that order last year. After an absence of several years ex-Councillor Martin Southwood returns to the municipal field, while three newcomers to municipal politics, Leslie Steadman, Clifford Corbett and Harold Pringle will provide strong opposition.

Fred. Babcock was given an acclamation as hydro commissioner.

Nomination held in Trinity Parish hall drew a larger crowd than in some years, and there were more ladies present than ever before. The electors listened patiently to the oratory until close to 11 o'clock. Town Clerk Harold Clarke was chairman.

Five Seek Positions On Aurora School Board

Aurora — Five candidates will vie for the three public school board seats on Monday, Dec. 8. The three retiring trustees, Dr. C. J. Devins, school board chairman and a member of the board for 27 years; Trustee Mrs. Maude Hodgkinson, first elected woman to municipal office in Aurora who headed the polls in 1945; and Trustee Herbert Stocks also elected in 1945, are again candidates. John Offord, runner-up to the late Hugh McRae in the 1947 special election, who declined a seat by appointment following Mr. McRae's death, and Stewart Mills are the other candidates. Mr. Offord, manager of Factory Equipment, president of the Aurora Cycling Club, and interested in lodge and church work, and Mr. Mills, civil engineer and vice-chairman of the Aurora Town Planning Board, round out a strong field of candidates. Eleven candidates were nominated for the three seats, the other six withdrawing from the race including two other women nominees.

Howard Brice Buys Molyneux Store

Newmarket — Arnold Molyneux said Monday he has sold his Red and White store to Howard Brice, and Mr. Brice will take possession at the end of the week. Mr. Brice said he will continue to operate both Molyneux's store and his own meat market, with the new property the "fruit and vegetable" department. He is also going to convert the latter to a self-serve store, the official opening of which will be announced later. There will be three direct telephone lines to either store, he said.

Mr. Molyneux did not know at press time where he would seek future employment, but he denied rumors that he would open a store at Bradford.

Also denied were rumors that Mrs. Lillian Thompson had sold or was about to sell her beauty salon here to operate a shop at Bradford. "I opened a beauty shop in Bradford in June," Mrs. Thompson said. "Last month Marion Rogers and I opened a dress shop next to the beauty shop in Bradford, but I am not going to sell the salon here. We are contemplating some renovations here, however."

Moulds, Fred Chantler, Dave Riddell, Robert Williamson, James and Jack White.

Born in Bradford in March, 1882, she was the daughter of the late Elizabeth Lunn and William John Walker. She married Frederick David Porter in 1913 and he predeceased her. She was employed as saleslady at Riddell's Bake Shop. Her church was the Anglican church and her main interests were in her home.

She is survived by two brothers, both in the United States, and two sisters, in Listowel and Toronto.

Kids Are Out Too Late, Give More Recreation-Beazer

Aurora — "Teen-age boys and girls are on the street too late most nights but especially Saturday and walk from restaurant to restaurant on Sundays with little to do," said Leslie Beazer, Aurora restaurant proprietor at the nomination meeting on Monday night. "Why doesn't council do something to provide supervised recreation? Let's teach our children how to play properly. Some day they'll be candidates or electors here. Right now if you ask the youngsters they'll tell you their troubles."

Mr. Beazer urged spending money on playground equipment at the town park and said he didn't think it should be up to small groups to provide local small play lots. The sports in the town park provided nothing for the younger children or for those who didn't like organized sports or weren't athletic, he said.

The Teen-Age club catered mostly to a dance crowd but many youngsters didn't like dancing.

Dr. C. J. Devins thought Aurora was well looked after in a recreational way as both schools had organized sports and the park, tennis and golf courses were available. The Lions club had taken up the slack in the organization when it was lacking. "The trouble is too many parents expect somebody else to look after and amuse their children," he said.

Mrs. John Klees agreed with Mr. Beazer that young children were out on Aurora streets too late at night and didn't have enough supervised recreation

LONG A LANDMARK, ELM TREE CUT DOWN

Bert Budd records with his camera the fall of the old elm tree last week. First the branches were trimmed off and then the upper part of the trunk as the two pictures above left show. The stump was undercut as above right and what was left of the tree pulled down onto the street to be cut up and carried away. Weller Tree Experts did the job.

Santa Claus To Visit Newmarket Dec. 13

Newmarket — A Santa Claus parade will be held in Newmarket Saturday, Dec. 13, under the sponsorship of the Newmarket Lions club. The decision followed a discussion at the club meeting Monday night. A committee of Denne Bosworth, Frank Bowser, Fred Hall, "Pat" Patterson, and Delbert Gibney is in charge.

Main St. merchants and the industries will be canvassed in the next few days for financial support and a strong response is anticipated. Already offers of floats for the parade have been received and the committee is out to make this year's parade the biggest and best ever.

The Lions also have under discussion the possibility of supervising the proposed outdoor arena at Fairy Lake; a minstrel show and an ice show. These three projects and the Santa Claus parade were discussed under the chairmanship of Delbert Gibney at an open meeting.

Pictures taken during a trip to the Canadian west were shown by Jack Luesby as part of the program.

See Many Councillors Candidates For 1948

Newmarket — With nomination night a little more than 24 hours away, almost all of the men who retire from public office at the end of this year indicate they will stand for election again, although many of them say they might seek different positions than they now hold.

Mayor Joseph Vale made a surprise announcement on Monday when he said he would again be a candidate for the position of mayor and chief magistrate. Formerly he had given every indication of a desire to retire from council at the end of the year.

Reeve Arthur Evans said he would seek re-election to the reeveship, which he won by acclamation last year.

Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spilletie was less definite, declining comment on whether or not he would run and the position he would seek.

Three councillors have announced definite intention to seek re-election. They are Tom Birrell, George M. Byers and Frank Bowser. R. C. Morrison said he would be a candidate, but he was "not sure" which position on the council he would seek. Mrs. Caroline Edwards and H. J. Luck both declined any comment on their intentions.

A seventh possible candidate for the position of councillor is Rudy Renzius, who this year retires from the public school board. Mr. Renzius said that he would not be a candidate for the school board, but that if nominated

See Milk Up 2 Cents As Feed Costs Soar

Aurora — Representatives of Aurora, Newmarket and district dairies met in Aurora on Tuesday night to discuss milk prices for the district and as a result decisions were reached to uphold the ruling of the Ontario Milk Control board to pay an increase of 56 cents a hundredweight to producers and to increase the price of milk to consumers two cents a quart, effective December 1. All milk tickets purchased prior to December 1 will require an additional two cents each after that date. With approximately 40 quarts of milk in 100 pounds, the two-cent increase will yield a net of 25 cents a hundredweight to the dairies.

According to feeders the increase is necessary to offset the increased costs of production, especially in the costs of feed. Feeders say that speculators in the grain market are directly responsible for the increased grain prices. One feed merchant has issued a circular advising farmers not to buy feed now unless forced to do so, in the hope that buyer resistance will force the markets down.

A serious picture of the future is also painted in the forecast that the milk production capacity of many herds will be drastically reduced because the prices of some types of necessary feeds have increased to such an extent that farmers cannot possibly afford to buy them.

Ask Ottawa To Halt Feed Grain Speculation

Seeking a way out from the squeeze of a 50 percent jump in the price of feed grains and a fixed selling price, a protest meeting of county farmers and feed dealers at Richmond Hill Saturday called upon the federal government to end speculation in feed grains and to renegotiate the contracts with Britain.

The resolution contained a clause asking that a majority of the cabinet ministers be present when Federation of Agriculture delegations are received. "James Gardiner, minister of agriculture, did all he could to protect us but he was outvoted by the rest of the cabinet," declared W. J. Woods, a director in the Ontario Federation of Agriculture and president of the newly-formed Cream Producers' Association, the main speaker.

The Richmond Hill meeting was one of several called across Ontario by the Federation of Agriculture. The resolution passed was similar in content to those passed in other meetings.

Anticipating a large meeting, there was disappointment among the less than 50 present that there were so few. R. G. Keffer, president of the York County Federation, presided. Members of the resolutions committee were E. A. Buchanan, Unionville; James Dalton, Maple, and Dalton Rumney, Gormley.

"We couldn't get grain before the prices went up," said Mr. Woods. "Yet the elevators were full. The day after the ceiling went off, you could get all you want." Mr. Woods said there was a $25 million difference between what the farmer got for his grain and what he has now to pay for it. "Who got that profit?" he asked. "Not the farmer." He urged a federal curb against speculation, which was later embodied in the resolution.

District Men Win Prizes For Grain

Frank Marritt, Keswick, won the reserve championship in fall wheat for region 2 which comprises section east of Fort William. There was strong competition in this class.

Morley Bain, Zephyr, displayed grain at the Royal Winter Fair and received championship in region 2 in late oats, Urban variety. It was a large class numbering about 20 entries.

Chief Watt's Resignation Effective Friday

Newmarket — The resignation of Chief Constable Ronald Watt, effective Friday, was accepted at a special meeting of the police committee of the town council on Tuesday night. R. C. Morrison, chairman of the police committee, said yesterday no definite arrangements had been made to replace Chief Watt, but that the committee "will probably place advertisements for a new chief shortly."

"It was with deep regret the committee accepted Chief Watt's resignation, because in the past 15 months, since he became chief, he has given wonderful service to Newmarket and has co-operated in every way at all times," Mr. Morrison said.

Chief Watt's resignation follows his purchase with James Lloyd of Deane's restaurant, formerly owned by Deane Muirhead, early last week. He was appointed chief constable of Newmarket in August, 1946.

King Haakon Commands Award For Mulock

Hon. W. P. Mulock, the former postmaster general, was decorated with St. Olaf's Medal for distinguished services rendered Norway during the war at a special ceremony in Toronto Monday. Dr. H. J. Cody, former chancellor of the University of Toronto, also received the medal, the two men being the only Canadians to be so honored.

The award was made at the command of King Haakon of Norway.

The decoration is named after the patron saint of Norway who was converted to Christianity during one of his Viking raids on England in ancient days. The decoration is awarded to Norwegians and foreigners for outstanding services and without any citation as the award itself is considered proof enough of exceptional ability.

The medal is suspended by a ribbon in the Norwegian national colors of red, white and blue in vertical stripes. The front has a profile relief of King Haakon surrounded by the words "Haakon VIII Norway's King" and the king's personal motto "all for Norway". On the reverse side is the old St. Olaf's cross in a relief: a cross and two battle axes.

HON. W. P. MULOCK

Institute Thanked For Parcel To U.K.

The W.A. of the United church held its November meeting at the home of Mrs. S. King at Holt on Wednesday of last week. The ladies listened to the reading of many fine letters from England in answer to parcels received there which had been sent from Mount Albert. They were very appreciative of the contents of the boxes and one felt well repaid for the effort taken to pack and send them. Mrs. Geo. Calver, who has recently returned from England, gave the ladies a very descriptive talk on the old churches near her old home in the south-east of England and also told about the hard time they are having over there in regard to food. It made one think we must just keep on helping them by sending more boxes and Mrs. Willbee at the post office will always receive donations or money for the cause.

Must Have Fire Ladder W.I. Finds From By-Law

The November meeting of Mount Albert Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Horace Brown with 16 members and one visitor present. Mrs. W. R. Steeper reported that Blue Cross cards would soon be received by members who have made their application.

Roll-call, "a question box on local laws", conducted by Mrs. G. Price and Mrs. G. Walsh, provided instructive. Mount Albert was declared a police village in 1912 and contained 271 and a half acres. The first election was held at the implement shop owned by Elias Pegg on February 19, 1912. It is a law that each home owner shall keep a ladder of sufficient length to reach the main chimney, also have handy two pails fit for carrying water and that the town constable see that all by-laws be reinforced.

It is customary to have the annual school meeting between Christmas and New Year's at 10 o'clock in the morning. The time of this meeting could be changed by a by-law passed by police trustees.

Mrs. Steeper gave a talk on the hand book explaining many laws pertaining to Institute meetings. Why not use our franchise? It doesn't matter how you vote, but vote and make sure we have the best representatives.

Mrs. Calver, who has recently returned from England, told of conditions over there. On explaining her mother's grocery book, which contained the grocer's stamp for each purchase, one would wonder how they carry on.

Mrs. Herb Harman gave a paper on "woman's place in the community". We women have the power to sway the destiny of the nation, first in our influence row, second by using our vote, she said. Let us live up to our responsibility. This paper should be repeated when all our members would benefit by it.

A social half-hour over the tea cups served by Mrs. W. Rate, Mrs. W. McPharland brought this meeting to a close.

What You Should Know about

TRAVEL RATIONING

Why?

Canada's supply of U.S. dollars will no longer stretch far enough to permit all the purchases of goods and services or all the travel in the United States that has taken place in the past. It is, therefore, necessary to reduce our expenditures of U.S. dollars in many different ways. As one of these steps, the Government has decided that the use of U.S. dollars for pleasure travel spending must be reduced. To ensure this reduction in a way that is fair to all, an annual "travel ration" has been established. As in the past — a Form H permit is required by anyone taking out of Canada more than $10 U.S. or more than a total of $25 in Canadian and foreign currencies.

Pleasure Travel

Regulations now provide that the maximum amount of U.S. dollars which any Canadian resident may obtain for pleasure travel purposes is $150 per year. In the case of children of eleven years and under, the amount is $100. There is no restriction on the number of trips as long as this annual allotment is not exceeded. Any U.S. dollars obtained for one trip and not used on that trip must be brought back to Canada and exchanged for Canadian dollars at a bank immediately on return. No credit for these funds can be allowed against the annual ration for subsequent trips.

Personal Purchases of U.S. Goods

A Canadian tourist should remember that the new restrictions applying to imports from the United States govern his personal purchases there. He may not bring back any merchandise which has now been prohibited or which may now only be imported on a quota basis. The list of goods covered by the new import restrictions is an extensive one. Tourists contemplating any particular purchase in the United States would be wise, before leaving the country, to ask Canadian Customs Officials if this purchase will be admitted.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

TUESDAY AT CONVENTION

Tuesday at the Convention

Last week I wrote of our struggle to catch the bus. In a steady downpour of rain we reached the city which looked grim and grey. We were thankful when we reached the warm, bright shelter of the Royal York and joined the stream of Institute members making their way to the convention floor. It struck me how wonderful a thing it is to see so many women gathered together with one basic purpose—to raise the living standard of women, especially rural women. Ideas, ideals, hopes and fears, all find expression and those specially worth while become concrete evidence of what women can accomplish if their hearts are really in their work.

Mrs. Moynes gave an excellent report on Publicity. She had received 15 of 16 Institute reports on publicity. This in itself is a tribute to Institute workers for a publicity report is a hard one to prepare.

Mrs. Moynes said that the keynote of publicity must be the members—items concerning W.I. activities must be well prepared and well put and well publicized. It takes art to do this and a real publicity expert can make even dull matters sparkle.

Mrs. Moynes continued: Each branch must make its activities known—we must be evangelistic if we will gain public approval and support. We must make the best use of advertising, use radio where we can as well as effective write-ups, but good deeds are wonderful publicizers. Publicity is the life of business and industry, so it must be of the W.I.

Printed programs are a decided asset, they can be given out to outsiders that they may see our work. As many names of members as possible must be shown as letting the world know their owners are interested enough in W.I. work to take an active part. We must take an increased interest in schools, in music, in oratorical contests, in fact in all matters pertaining to youth.

In writing to Mrs. Moynes the name of district and branch should be clearly given.

Mrs. Hugh Summers, president of the F.W.I.C., said the Institutes now have a fund of $20,000, the interest of which is used for scholarships. If the W.I. cares to help further, it could raise a fund for scholarships for junior girls. She said Amsterdam was a revelation. She travelled there with the American delegation and living with them under these conditions brought about a better understanding than could have been reached in any other way. Visiting British Institutes also brought about an increased understanding of their problems. She said one of our problems is to arouse women to their great responsibilities as voters. She told us that after the British Housewives' League presented their case to Prime Minister Atlee, Mr. Shinwell was removed from office.

We must strive to raise the standard of living and help find solutions for world problems, she said. That of France alone with only one-eighth of its normal wheat crop, with no milk, no butter, no margarine or cheese, calls for immediate study. We should think of wheat as a means of communication between men, she said.

Then came the girls' session under the leadership of Miss Florence Eade. Each speaker or group was introduced by Miss Lois Graham, who spoke appreciatively of the Senior W.I. work.

We heard about good eating. The girls keep records of the time spent in their gardens, they learn to can food and explore storage possibilities. We should learn, say the girls, how to make common foods like potatoes and milk so attractive that they are accepted not in suffrance but in a party spirit.

They told of the two ways to garden—horse and hand. Insects and their means of hurting and being hurt are studied. There should be flowers, say the girls, round every house. Meetings should be once a month and members should make punctuality a virtue and the members must never look bored and above all, all new members should be made to feel they are wanted and needed. Dresses were made and modelled; flowers arranged and arrangements discussed. They learn to make Christmas decorations. A Polish boy was adopted by one club. Interest was taken in a little Greek child and a European club.

At 11 a.m. came the Memorial Day observance. We sang "O God, our help in ages past," "The Reckoning," "Peace, Perfect Peace," and "God Save The King," after which two minutes of silence were observed. It was impressive and it was serene and beautiful.

Next week I shall write of the luncheon with its speakers and music.

Mail Those Parcels Early Postmaster Warns

Newmarket—Postmaster Laurie Cane has issued a warning that it is again time to start getting those Christmas packages in the mail. Parcels to the United States should be mailed before December 10, to British Columbia before December 15, to Alberta and Saskatchewan before December 16, to Manitoba and the Maritimes before December 17, and to points in Ontario and Quebec before December 18. The same dates apply for Christmas cards and letters. Cards and parcels for local delivery must be put in the mail before December 19 to insure delivery.

"It is in the public's own interest to co-operate by mailing early and by affixing the proper postage," Mr. Cane said. "Every one is requested to make sure his parcel is securely packed and fully addressed."

Understanding Said Need For Peace

Aurora — "We need understanding of other nations, and other ways of life and customs, if we are going to make this one world and avert another conflict," declared Z. S. Phimister, inspector of schools for Toronto, at the Aurora Education Week church service in Aurora United church on Sunday evening. Mr. Phimister was a delegate to United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization in Paris last summer. The need for Europe of more food and financial aid from North America was more apparent than ever, he said. Tolerance and patience were required by all countries towards the solving of problems that really affected all.

Isolationism must not be allowed to become part of the national policy of any country, he declared.

Schools Should Offer More - Mrs. Edwards

Newmarket—Mrs. Caroline Edwards, the first woman councillor for Newmarket and a former member of the school board, addressed the Woman's Association of Trinity United church on citizenship at their last meeting which was held on November 6.

"It speaks well for our fathers that our country has attained the place in the world that she has," said Mrs. Edwards. "We are so much inclined to shirk responsibility and to take everything for granted. Many do not even cast their ballots at election time."

"In our schools we have emphasized too much perhaps the idea of what we can obtain from the world rather than what we can give to the world. Secondary schools should be more practical and offer more to the student than a university entrance."

Mrs. Edwards referred to world citizenship and the part that women have to play in this field. "The chief aim of women throughout the world is to secure the best for their children. Because of this unity of purpose women perhaps have a better understanding of world citizenship than have men."

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

Why do some men achieve greater success than others?

The reason is not so much because some men have greater natural aptitudes and abilities, but because they have developed greater thinking power.

To learn to think, learn first to concentrate. This takes constant practice. All of us tend to be mentally lazy. When we try to think about any subject, our minds persist in wandering. So we must keep yanking our thoughts back on the track.

Practice thinking for 15 minutes every day about Canada's role in international affairs, television, how to improve radio programs, or any other subject you may choose. Stay with it and, if possible, reach some original conclusions.

You will find that, just as you can build muscle by exercise, so you can increase your thinking power. And you will have taken an important step toward greater personal success.

It may pay you to concentrate today on the subject of bringing your life insurance up to date. Your circumstances may have changed in recent years so that your insurance no longer meets your present needs. So re-adjust it periodically with the help of a good agent.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

Not Enough Evidence Dismiss Traffic Charge

Newmarket — Magistrate Holinrake suspended sentence of Reginald Le Gresley, R. R. 2, Newmarket, in court on Friday and put him on probation for one year. Le Gresley had been charged with stealing a quantity of wood from Glen Micks, R. R. 2, Newmarket. Jos. Vale acted as counsel. He said that Le Gresley was a good honest citizen who had lived in this district a long time and had three children.

Because there was not sufficient evidence a charge of dangerous driving against Elmer Graham, Holland Landing, was dismissed. According to Kenneth Graham, Holland Landing, who was riding with Elmer Graham, they were travelling from Newmarket north on Yonge St. the night of Sunday, Nov. 9, and caught up to William Brown, Holland Landing, who was stalled on the highway. He said they stopped and gave him a push up the hill but when they reached the other side of the hill, Brown's car began to swerve. When the brakes were applied on the Graham car it swerved around to the left and faced south. Brown testified that his car turned into the ditch on the east side of the highway, rolling over and throwing him free of the car. He said he suffered a gash on the cheek and head. Kenneth Graham and Brown both said that the cars had reached a speed of about 30 miles an hour at the top of the hill. Brown said that he thought it was faulty steering mechanism that caused him to go off the road. A. S. Andrews of the Provincial Police, who investigated the accident, said that he could find nothing wrong with the steering mechanism of the car although the top of the body was wrecked. Magistrate Holinrake said that there was a difference in the story given in court from that given the officer after the accident but that there was not enough evidence to convict the accused of dangerous driving.

Gordon and William West, Toronto, aged 17 and 18 respectively, were charged with stealing a car belonging to Albert James Gilbert, 53 Eagle St., Newmarket. Gilbert testified that he and a friend followed the stolen car down No. 11 highway toward Toronto. The car and the two youths were picked up in Toronto by police. The charge was reduced to that of using a car without the owner's permission and Gordon West, who had no previous record was given a suspended sentence and put on probation. William, who was already on probation for attempted car theft, was sentenced to two months definite, four months indefinite.

There were five charges of illegal parking on Main St. one of which was dismissed because there was not a "no parking" sign where the offender parked too close to the street corner. Strathdee Transport pleaded guilty to four charges of illegal parking.

William Muirhead, Kettleby, was granted $500 bail until next week on a charge of breaking into and doing damage to Deane's Restaurant, Newmarket.

36 years in business

More than a Million Canadians WROTE THIS BILLION-DOLLAR STORY

Everywhere in Canada—in villages, towns, metropolitan centres—you can find them. They are the people—1,500,000 strong—in every walk of life who are building their futures and doing their day-to-day financing by saving or borrowing at the Bank of Montreal.

Every member of this B of M family has a hand in building the resources of the Bank while he builds his own future. These resources, which amount to nearly two billion dollars, exist almost entirely because of the balances these people can show you in their B of M passbooks.

This money does not stand idle... it works constantly for the building of the nation.

Here is the money that makes the wheels of commerce turn... that helps the farmer garner his crops... that helps the lumberman buy equipment and pay his men.

Here are the dollars that enable the Bank to make more than 500 personal loans every business day of the year to men and women who need money to meet emergencies and take advantage of opportunities.

MY BANK B of M Reporting

THE FACTS BEHIND THE FIGURES

WHAT THE B of M HAS TO MEET ITS OBLIGATIONS:

CASH: The B of M has cash in its vaults and money on deposit with the Bank of Canada amounting to . . . $ 203,696,837.69

MONEY in the form of notes of, cheques on, and deposits with other banks. . . . 136,768,245.63

INVESTMENTS: The B of M has close to one billion dollars invested in high-grade government bonds and other public securities, which have a ready market. Listed on the Bank's books at a figure not greater than their market value, they amount to . . . 957,888,826.81

The B of M has other bonds, debentures and stocks, representing to some extent the extension of credit to industrial enterprises for reversion and for expansion of productive facilities in established fields. Valued at no more than the market price, they amount to . . . 96,866,538.42

CALL LOANS: The B of M has call loans which are fully protected by quickly saleable securities. These loans amount to . . . 36,807,209.71

QUICKLY AVAILABLE RESOURCES: The resources listed above, all of which can quickly be turned into cash, cover 78.7% of all that the Bank owes to the public. These "quick assets" amount to $1,432,027,658.28

LOANS: During the year, many millions of dollars have been lent to business and industrial enterprises for production of every kind, including housing and construction—to farmers, fishermen, lumbermen and ranchers—to citizens in all walks of life, and to Provincial and Municipal Governments and School Districts. These loans now amount to . . . 421,704,063.46

BANK BUILDINGS: In hamlets, villages, towns and large cities from coast to coast the B of M serves its customers at more than 500 offices. The value of the buildings owned by the Bank, together with furniture and equipment, is shown on its books at . . . 13,276,623.00

OTHER ASSETS: These chiefly represent liabilities of customers for commitments made by the Bank on their behalf, covering foreign and domestic trade transactions. . . . 31,996,960.45

TOTAL RESOURCES WHICH THE B of M HAS TO MEET ITS OBLIGATIONS . . . $1,898,405,405.19

WHAT THE B of M OWES TO OTHERS:

DEPOSITS: While many business firms, manufacturers, merchants, farmers and people in every type of business have large deposits with the B of M, the bulk of the money on deposit with the Bank is the savings of more than a million private citizens. The total of all deposits is . . . $1,783,441,667.31

BANK NOTES: B of M bills in circulation, which are payable on presentation, amount to . . . 4,783,548.00

OTHER LIABILITIES: Miscellaneous items, representing mainly commitments undertaken by the Bank on behalf of customers in their foreign and domestic trade transactions. . . . 29,100,538.78

TOTAL OF WHAT THE B of M OWES ITS DEPOSITORS AND OTHERS . . . $1,817,325,754.09

TO PAY ALL IT OWES, THE B of M HAS TOTAL RESOURCES, AS SHOWN ON THE LEFT SIDE OF THIS STATEMENT, AMOUNTING TO . . . 1,898,405,405.19

WHICH MEANS THAT THE B of M HAS RESOURCES, OVER AND ABOVE WHAT IT OWES, AMOUNTING TO . . . $ 81,079,571.10

This figure of $81,079,571.10 is made up of money subscribed by the shareholders and, to some extent, of profits which have from time to time been ploughed back into the business to broaden the Bank's services and to give added protection for the depositors.

EARNINGS— After paying all overhead expenses, including staff salaries, bonuses and contributions to the Pension Fund, and after making provision for contingencies, and for depreciation of Bank premises, furniture and equipment, the B of M reports earnings for the twelve months ended October 31st, 1947, of . . . $ 9,579,285.29

Provision for Dominion Income and Excess Profits Taxes and Provincial Taxes . . . 4,156,000.00

Leaving Net Earnings of . . . $ 5,423,285.29

This amount was distributed as follows:

Dividends to Shareholders . . . $ 3,600,000.00

Balance to Profit and Loss Account . . . 1,823,285.29

B of M EARNINGS ON THE SHAREHOLDERS' INVESTMENT

On each dollar of the shareholders' money invested in the Bank of Montreal, the Bank earned 11.81 cents in 1947.

AND HOW THEY WERE DIVIDED

KESWICK
Sunday-School Has Anniversary Service

Sunday, Nov. 23, was the Sunday-school anniversary in the United church. Though there was a good attendance, still a number of scholars and even teachers were absent. The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Cowieson gave special selections and were much appreciated. Mrs. Cowieson is doing a fine work with these juniors. Mr. F. F. Marritt, superintendent, assisted Rev. Brown in the service, and gave an appeal for support in this important work of the church. He said, "We lack adequate space for the successful work of our church school, and we are handicapped by lack of teachers. Surely in a community the size of ours there is some one who could give a little of his time and talent to teach a class."

Gordon Winch of Victoria University gave the address of the morning. Using two verses, Matthew 10: 32, and Galatians 2: 20, as outlines of his talk, he drew from his own experience, and it is hoped that many young people felt the challenge. This service, it was hoped, will strengthen our church school.

Danny McGenerty received his Five-Star silver pin for completing his five years of the temperance study course. We hope that a larger number will be eligible for this award next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Marritt and son were in Keswick at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Marritt for the weekend.

Misses Mary Jean and Lois Marritt were home for Sunday. Miss Lyn Cowieson was at her father's home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knights were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Boothby on Sunday.

Miss Florence Waldon and Mr. and Mrs. S. Haron spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. I. Waldon who were celebrating a wedding anniversary.

Misses Phyllis Winch and Peggy Locke were at their homes for the commencement weekend.

Those parents who attended the investiture for the Scouts on Thursday, Nov. 20, must have been very pleased with the way the boys and their leaders took their parts in the service. This is a great effort on the part of Rev. Brown and his patrol leaders. Don MacDonald, King's Scout, Toronto, was in Keswick and assisted in the ceremony. In his remarks to the boys, Don told them that, "It was not an easy task to become a good Scout." It meant much hard work, but if they were in earnest, they would find it much worthwhile, he said.

BROWNHILL

With the chilly weather here again and all this lovely snow to remind us that Christmas is less than a month away, most of the kitchens have that lovely aroma of Christmas cakes and puddings while the men folk sit around waiting patiently for a sample of these Christmas goodies and the school kiddies practise for the Christmas concert, everything is as it should be.

Louis Sedore returned home Saturday from deer hunting. However, fishing is his cherished thought. He was away for two weeks with Cedar Brae Hunt Club.

Miss McKenna, our school teacher, combined her two holidays and visited her home in Ottawa. We hope she had a nice time.

Mrs. Andrew Sedore and her three children are visiting at the home of Mrs. E. Sedore for a short holiday. Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. W. Sargeant in the loss of her mother, Mrs. Joyce, last Saturday.

Miss Alma King was home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot King visited at Keswick last Sunday.

Roy Crouth and Ivan Hillis have been up north buying Christmas trees.

Mr. George Miller visited his home here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Timms visited Mr. and Mrs. S. Sedore for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson were home for a short while Sunday.

Miss Shirley Sedore visited her parents for a few days last week. Mr. Herb. Frederickson visited Mr. Wilmot King on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crouth visited in Pefferlaw last Sunday evening.

Howard King has gone to Toronto to work for the winter.

With St. Andrew's Day looming large on the horizon, all good Scotsmen (I understand Scotsmen and not old way of spelling it is correct) will be looking up the recipe for Haggis in their cook books, or maybe their womenfolk will be doing it—but from the recipe I have—I cut it out of a paper—I think it's a man's recipe.

I think I'll copy it out. I have an idea I wrote on this subject once before, but then St. Andrew's Day is a high day for bonnie Scotland so it deserves a write-up occasionally. I have always loved the Highland tales;
we were brought up on Sir Walter Scott and the good old Scotch songs were my favorites "wi' a hundred pipers and all and all".
You give it the Scotch pronunciation. I'm afraid I can't spell it Scots Wha Hoi. Bonnie Doon.
Loch Lomond, Bonnie Mary of Argyle, Flow Gently Sweet Af-fion, Och O'Hazeldene, Highland Laddie, Charlie Is My Darling,
Callie Herring, Robin Adair, There's Nae Luck About the House When Our Guid Man's Awa'. (See? It's no good—I can't spell in Scotch!)

Bobby Burns' ghost will be haunting the Highlands a week from Sunday night. Foot, mon!
Lovers of J. M. Barrie will be recalling The Little Minister and hunting for it in their book case.
Lovers of curling will be watching the weather to see when they can indulge in their favorite sport—they need keen ice for that famous, exhilarating game!
But I said I'd copy out the recipe I have—but, believe me, I can't recommend it. I haven't tried it out myself. It was during the war. Well, I'll say no more—just copy out this clipping. I don't even know at this late date from which paper I cut it.

"Britain's Board of Trade received three heavy registered packages which were thought to be bombs, but turned out to be Haggis. A dictionary defines the haggis as a 'dish consisting of the heart, lungs and liver of a sheep, calf, etc. (or something of the tripe and chitterlings) minced with suet and oatmeal, seasoned with salt, pepper, onions, etc., and boiled like a large sausage in the maw of the animal.' If that isn't a bomb, what would be? And note those "elec-teras"! How to make a Haggis is

N.H.S. Commencement Exercises Crowd Auditorium

Newmarket—The high school auditorium was crowded with pupils, their parents and friends on Friday night for the annual commencement exercises which were highlighted by the return to her old school of Miss Eileen McGonigle, now head of the guidance department, Humberston College, in Toronto. She was introduced by a former school mate, Miss Annie King, staff member at the school.
Valedictorian Kathleen Miller was roundly applauded as she recalled the pleasant memories of her school years, remembering with humor and gratitude the many events at Newmarket high school. "It is not until we are leaving that we fully appreciate what Newmarket high school has meant to us," she said. "Let us cherish these dear memories of our blunders, our failures, our triumphs and engrave them in guided pages of our life's record."

Miss McGonigle remembered her days at Newmarket high school with gratitude for the assistance and encouragement she had received from the staff

How To Keep Sunday?
S.S. Convention Theme

"How are we to preserve our Canadian Sunday?" was the theme of a topic discussed after a talk by Rev. N. Rowan at the annual fall rally of the Whitchurch Rural Sunday-School Teachers' Association. A resolution was framed which will be presented for approval to the annual convention next May to be forwarded to the Whitchurch twp.
council regarding a number of steps considered by the personnel of the association to be essential to preserve the original spirit of Lord's Day observance.

Another feature of the evening was a presentation by J. Shepherd of the Pine Orchard Sunday school of an attractive program for the teen-age boys who often are lost to the Sunday-school.
The thought emphasized was that the natural tendency of the adolescent boy is the "gang" instinct which should be encouraged in the proper channels instead of discouraged as being intrinsically evil.

While the slippery driving conditions prevented a large attendance, there was no lack of enthusiasm in the discussion lead by Rev. Ernest Morton, Ringwood, or in the response to the special selections rendered by the Gornley quartet.

Homemakers' Exchange

Yuletide candies occupy our thoughts this week and here are several that will tempt even the strongest-willed to nibble. You will want to enclose these holiday sweets in your gift boxes. These favorites will be real hospitality-extended to all your Christmas guests.

MOLASSES POPCORN BALLS
Combine ½ cup light corn syrup, 1½ cups light molasses, and 1 tablespoon butter. Cook to a very hard ball stage (265 degrees). Stir in ½ teaspoon soda. Pour over 4 quarts popped corn. Mix well. Form in balls. Makes about 14 medium balls.

POPCORN POPS
Make above molasses popcorn syrup and pour over popped corn and toss well. Pack firmly into a well-greased, shallow 6-inch round pan. Cool slightly; turn out on waxed paper. Insert a wooden skewer in each. Cool. Wrap in cellophane and tie with holiday ribbon to hang on Christmas tree for the children or pass among adults — easier eating with hands.

CHOCOLATE SQUARES
1 lb. marshmallows
1 ½-oz. package semi-sweet chocolate
3 Tablespoons butter
½ Teaspoon salt
1 Cup crisp rice cereal
1 Teaspoon vanilla
1 Cup walnut meats broken
Melt marshmallows, chocolate, and butter in double boiler. Add remaining ingredients. Mix.

Spread in greased 8-inch square pan.
"No sugar! Easy melt-and-mix method."

MOLASSES TAFFY
½ Cup brown sugar
1½ Cups light molasses
¾ Cup light corn syrup
¼ Teaspoon soda
1½ Tablespoons butter
1 Cup walnut meats, broken
Combine sugar, molasses and syrup. Stir to dissolve sugar. Cook to light-crack stage (265 degrees). Add soda and butter. Mix well. Add nut meats. Pour into greased shallow pan. When cool enough to handle, pull until very light. Form in ropes; cut with scissors.
"Mild molasses, rich nut flavor—fun to pull!"

CANDIED ORANGE PEEL
Cover peel of 3 oranges with water. Add 1 teaspoon salt. Simmer 30 minutes. Drain thoroughly. Cover with cold water. Heat to boiling. Drain. Repeat 3 times. Drain. Cut in ½-inch strips with scissors. Add 1½ cups light corn syrup. Cook slowly until peel is translucent. Drain. Roll in granulated sugar. Dry on wire cake rack.

"If you have a traditional stuffing for the holiday bird or any special Yuletide trims that add a touch of glamor to the simplest foods send them to The Homemakers, c/o Newmarket Era and Express, Newmarket.

HEAR NEWMARKET STORY

Newmarket — The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Luesby, Arden Ave., on Wednesday November 19. Mrs. Roy McDonald presiding. Major John Barnett, 1st vice-president of the Ontario Historical Society, spoke on the early history of Newmarket.

Major Barnett said that a survey was made in 1800 and that many early settlers were the United Empire Loyalists who came to Newmarket from the Maritimes. "Newmarket started as a village soon after that survey, and was chosen as a town because of its good mill sites. The first woolen mill was established by Eli Gorham in 1808 and the first village election was held in 1858," said Major Barnett. The next meeting will be held on Dec. 17.

LIBRARY CORNER

by CAROLINE E. ION

"Banting's Miracle," the story of the discoverer of insulin by Seale Harris, M.D., with a foreword by Elliott P. Joslin, M.D., is another new addition to the Newmarket public library. Containing 33 illustrations it was published by J. M. Dent and Sons (Canada) Ltd., 1946.

This biography is not a novel, but the reader will often find it as enticing as a novel and yet more enduring. In it the varied threads of Banting's early and later life are gathered together. The author, a close friend of Banting, and an editor and historian as well as a scientific investigator in his own right, has portrayed for us the little touches, the local incidents, which plainly influenced Banting's later life.

Writes Dr. Joslin in his foreword, "Until I read these pages I had no conception of how far back were the underlying springs of Banting's career. To me the book is one which both the physician and the layman will want to give to his children and grandchildren to read. As for diabetics, there is no question but that it will lead them to try more earnestly to conquer their disease and to earn their own medal for living longer with diabetes than they might have been expected to have lived without it."

The true realization of the magnitude of Banting's discovery is only beginning to dawn upon us. Today because of insulin thousands of diabetics live

Complex At 19 Years

Fred is 19 and is suffering from an inferiority complex resulting from repeated failures at home and in school. He thinks everyone can do things he cannot do and will never be able to do. He thinks people stare at him so avoids meeting people.

As a child, Fred was very sensitive and slow to learn. His older brothers had better than average mentality which made life difficult for Fred in his own home. At school, it was impossible for Fred to compete with his classmates. It's no wonder Fred acquired an inferiority complex which further impeded his progress.

Today, in more advanced school systems, there are opportunity classes which help the child progress at his own rate of speed and enable him to be successful. There are no failures. The child is studied as an individual and his aptitudes noted with a view to encouraging him along the lines best suited to his abilities. Inability to read and write is of minimum importance as compared with establishing a wrong attitude—that of "defeatism."

Children should never be allowed to fail at school or at home. Discouragement defeats all learning. Where there is consciousness, there is need for encouragement if the latent abilities are to be developed.

It is a very serious situation when a boy of 19 feels himself a complete failure and a burden to his family. He has a great need to feel superior in some capacity. Because of his development of fear of people, it might be best to get him established in some important work that deals with inanimate objects or animals. There are a number of handicrafts that might interest him and certainly wouldn't tax his mental powers.

Fred is fond of his dog and takes excellent care of him. It might interest him to breed dogs, rabbits or birds. The work of gardening would be another field in which he could qualify. The main idea is to start this 19-year-old youth doing something he can do successfully with a view to preparing him for gainful employment filling a place in society.

Once Fred has achieved success in anything, his horizon will extend and he will lose the phobias which are a direct result of an inferiority complex.

who previously would have been doomed to years of semi-starvation followed by coma and death.

This story written in sheer gratitude to Banting is a worthy tribute to the greatest man of our time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Norton,
R. R. 2, Glenville, who recently celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary, received a letter with a number of gifts from the people of Glenville as a token of their esteem and appreciation for the services of Mr. and Mrs.
Norton to the community.

"We, the people of Glenville, this opportunity of celebrating with you the happy occasion of your 40th wedding anniversary," the letter read. "For many years you have both taken an active part in the social life of the community. Your very efficient services in caring for the school and church are most deeply appreciated."

The letter, signed by Clarice and Hazel Sharpe, Bob and Laura Carson, and Aubrey and Evelyn Doan on behalf of the community expressed the best wishes of Glenville on their anniversary.

Report On Address At W. I. Convention

The following is a report of the address on Happy Homes
Make Good Citizens by Mrs. J. A. Clare, Guelph, of the Institute of Child Study at W.I. convention at the Royal York hotel, Toronto.
notes understanding and comradeship.

This address comprised mainly ideas to use in our family life. We gain knowledge every day from the many relatives who come and go in our home life.
There is a purpose and desire in all parents' lives for their children. We want to see our children grow up to be respected citizens but we have not always allowed them to do so because we want to continue to make decisions for them.

Children should be taught to make their own decisions, in other words learn to stand on their own feet. It is hard on us to see our children grow up. We worry for their worries instead of helping them to meet their responsibilities as they appear. We should learn to guide and direct, not make decisions. We see what war has done to our citizens of today. The boys and girls today between 12 and 25 are passing through a difficult time, in fact the most trying of any age.
Physically and socially they must have goals set for them. A good citizen is one who is happy in society and one who can adjust himself to it. Even a two-year-old meets society when he is allowed to play with other youngsters.

Even the baby in the carriage who is left outside the store while his mother shops is meeting society. We must practice democratic living in our daily lives.
We must be willing to do our part in the home, the church and the community. We must strive to be interested in others, forget to criticize and work for the good of all.

Helping Teen-Agers

It is very important that we help teen-agers to make this a world of better and happier homes. The business of making a home is a two-person job—both parents must work at it if it is to be a happy home. It takes doctors, lawyers, teachers and people of all professions years of study to make themselves ready for their profession but the need to train men and women for parenthood—the most important job in the world, has not been recognized.

You and your neighbor both have the same problems to solve in raising a family, so why not get together and discuss these matters? We cannot suddenly acquire qualities of parenthood.
They have to be experienced.
Parents of adolescent children wonder "what will I do next?"

Know Your Children

Learn to know your children, endeavor to find out how each child will respond. No two children are alike. We sometimes expect too much of adolescent children—remember they have not grown up yet. Each child is an individual and it is up to parents to take time to learn and study what the differences are.
There are four teachers in our children's lives—the home, the school, the church and the community. Even the corner store has an influence on our children's lives. Let children observe affection between parents, let them feel there is love and understanding between parents.

There must be a sense of security in a happy home. It is as important to the two-year old as it is to the 21-year old to feel security in the home. Home training today is much more difficult than a few years ago on account of so many outside interests for the children. And these outside interests have an affect the children of the home.
Parents can have too many outside interests. The effects of these outside interests sometimes effect the children of the home.
A baby in its mother's arms feels the security of her love.

There must be a listening ear to a child. Never be too busy to notice and praise the scribbled efforts of the youngest and pause to listen to a special item of hot music on the air or take time to hear all about what the girls wore at a party. This pro-

Nomination Night What You Make It

John Citizen says he isn't going to the nomination meeting because everything is "cut and dried, and the little fellow hasn't a look-in". What could be more ridiculous? The truth is that John Citizen is too shy—or too indifferent—to speak out in public, to do a little nominating himself as he has the perfect right to do.

Certainly, a lot of arranging is done ahead of time. Why not? It makes a candidate feel that much more secure to line up his backers ahead of time. It expedites matters, too. If present members of council and the school board find it convenient to nominate each other, why shouldn't they? There is no law against it any more than there is against John Citizen adding his two bits worth.

John Citizen nurses another grouch, that the same candidates are nominated year in and year out. If John Citizen is dissatisfied, he can always nominate new candidates. That he accepts the same nominations each year without adding any of his own is a pretty sound indication that he must be satisfied.

The nomination meeting is the citizens' forum. There the candidates for public office have a chance to outline their intentions. There the public has a chance to size them up, to pick and choose in terms of what candidates will accomplish most for the municipality. Nomination night is one of the great democratic institutions, but the measure of its value depends entirely upon the citizens. If they stay away as they do in Newmarket, nomination night becomes a farce. If they grouse but do nothing, it is a farce. Nomination night means something only when the citizens want it to.

It's utter nonsense for John Citizen to grouch that everything "is cut and dried", that the same candidates are elected each year. If he doesn't like it, let him go to nomination meeting and do something about it. If he is just grouching for the sake of grouching—than the less attention paid to him, the better.

Farmers Grouse But Won't Act

Less than 50 of the farmers in the county attended the meeting in Richmond Hill Saturday night, called by the York County Federation of Agriculture to protest the unprecedented increase in the price of feed grains. The farmer is often heard stating his case thus: "Big interests control the government and the farmer never gets a hearing". That small audience at Richmond Hill is the reason farmers never get a hearing. They have a case but they won't press it.

The farmers are the largest single group in the country. With the pressure of organized numbers, they could get whatever they want from the government. If the farmer is to be believed, the opposite happens. "The farmer always comes last." The farmer always will come last if that protest meeting at Richmond Hill is any sample of farmers in action. Numbers mean nothing unless organized; organization means nothing unless backed by an active membership.

The night the meeting was called was a raw one with rain and wind. For most farmers, it would have meant a long drive to attend the meeting. But what are those discomforts when compared to knocking little pigs on the head or selling off poultry flocks because it costs too much to feed them? Perhaps the federation isn't what the farmers want, but if it isn't, is there anything as good or better in sight? Maybe the farmers thought that a protest meeting in Richmond Hill wouldn't mean anything, but a good shout from Richmond Hill would have meant a lot when blended with protests from all over the province. At Richmond Hill, the protests of 500 farmers would have carried a lot of weight but 50 aren't going to be given much attention.

From the look of the meeting at Richmond Hill, the increase in feed grain prices can't mean much to the farmer. Were it not for the economic fact that production costs cannot rise while revenue remains the same without someone feeling the pinch, the whole business could be passed off. As it is, the farmers are up against a serious situation. But they'll get no sympathy as long as they wait for someone else to skin their cats and grouse all the time at the delay.

The farmers have a case but until they show they are willing to do something about it, all the talk on the concession corners isn't going to accomplish a thing.

All Right As Far As It Goes

Finance minister Abbott's announcement of import restrictions as a means to protect the national exchange position is greeted with relief. Whatever hardships are imposed by the restrictions will be small besides the official recognition at last that Canada is in a very embarrassing position as far as its trade balances are concerned.

Canada's dollar shortage has been in the making for two years. Its seriousness has been most apparent for the last six to eight months. Until Mr. Abbott's announcement, however, the government gave little or no official recognition of this dangerous circumstance. Such a practice is not one to encourage confidence. It is possible that the Geneva trade talks and the necessity of selling such a program to the United States has delayed an official announcement. The facts may come out in the approaching session.

Now that the government has acted, there can be little disagreement as far as it goes. Canada cannot continue to export to nations unable to pay us in the American dollars needed to offset our heavy imports from the United States. The choice was to either reduce exports to England and Europe or imports from the United States. The former would have been fully with Canada's heavy dependence upon her export trade for her prosperity.

The objection we raise is that the government, by restricting American imports, is dealing with only half of the issue. It has offered nothing to make us the less vulnerable to a recurrence of unfavorable trade balances. As long as so much of our revenue is derived from trade, we will suffer from effects of economic changes in the countries where we market our goods. What is needed is a larger domestic market to cut down our dependence on overseas trade. A policy of population growth, to increase our domestic market, is the corollary to the government's import restrictions.

Real Trouble Still There

The resolutions passed at the meeting in Richmond Hill Friday night protesting the increase in feed grain prices offer temporary relief but they do not strike at the root of the farmers' major economic problem. The resolutions, asking a grain board to set prices on feed grain and the re-negotiation of overseas contracts, applies only to a specific instance of the hog and poultry raiser being caught between a jump in cost and fixed selling price.

The farmers' real problem lies in the low percentage of the consumers' dollar he receives. Compared to the 70 cents that the United States farmer gets, Ontario's estimated 50 cents isn't very high. The only way that condition can be corrected is by concerted action by the farmer through marketing boards and co-operatives. But first the farmer must show he is prepared to spend a little money and take a little time. He must either work through his farm organizations for a larger share of the consumers' dollar by assuming greater control over the marketing of his products, or have himself shored up by a patchwork of subsidies, the removal of any one of which is likely to dump on his hip pockets just as the end of the feed grain subsidy is doing now.

HIGHER THE HILL, LONGER THE SLIDE

Seen Around Town

About the men and women you meet around town almost everyday.

In 1922 James Stanley Osborne tossed his hat into the political ring in East Gwillimbury township, and thereafter he served as councillor, deputy-reeve, and reeve, as a member of the equalization board, the reforestation board, and the finance committee, as old-age pension commissioner, as York County Industrial Home commissioner, as warden's commissioner, and in 1943 as warden of York county.

As a member of the East Gwillimbury township council Stan was instrumental in having the county take over the maintenance of both the north and south town lines, the eighth concession running from Mount Albert to the north town line, and the road running west from Sharon to Holland Landing. He was also instrumental in getting the road from Holt to Sharon paved by the county.

JAMES STANLEY OSBORNE

Stan's parents came from Bradworthy, Devonshire, England, as bride and groom, making their home in Newmarket where Stan was born in 1879. They moved to Sutton West shortly after, and there Richard Osborne operated a butcher shop with the aid of his sons for several years. When Stan was 20 he borrowed a "large sum of money ($100)" rented a store owned by Bond and Urquhart (now Myers' Confectionery) at the north end of Newmarket, hired the late Ben Watson as his assistant, and opened his own butcher store. Mr. Watson worked for Stan until the business was sold in 1920.

In 1905 Stan took his younger brother, Walter J. Osborne, into the business. In 1910 Walter went into business for himself in Alberta, and in the same year Stan bought George Trivett's home at the corner of Main and Simcoe Sts. and converted it into an attractive meat market. In 1912 Stan employed three men, Mr. Watson, the late Tom Laviolette, and Basil McHale. His sister, Blanche Osborne, was a bookkeeper.

Deliveries were made from the store via two small pony carts. One of the ponies, Nellie, was the "intellectual type" according to Mrs. Osborne. No matter where she was on her rounds, the noon whistle at the Davis Leather Co. meant "soup's on" to Nellie, and she streaked for home, often leaving her driver stranded. Stan sold the business to Luke Lyons in 1920 and bought a farm on the third of East Gwillimbury, where he still lives.

As a young man Stan played baseball for the town team, holding down the initial sack on a team which included Mitch Howard, Art Peppiatt, Ernie Doyle, Ted Cochran, Fred Doyle, Wally Gamble and Erwin Ross. Newmarket also boasted a fine curling club at the time. Among its members were W. J. Choppin, Tom and Will Brunton, J. S. Downs, Wake Howard, Tom Doyle, Harry Helmer, Tom Watson and George Robitaille. Stan, and the other boys were "good enough to meet and play with other teams at the Granite club, Toronto."

Stan was also a member of the Agriculture Fair Board for many years, serving one term as president. He was married in 1908, to the former Edna Kaiser, Sutton West. Mr. and Mrs. Osborne attend Trinity United church, where Mrs. Osborne was a member of the choir for eight years and is a past president of the Young People's Auxiliary.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The Editor, Era and Express: On behalf of the Newmarket Christian church, I wish to express to you our real appreciation for the manner in which you assisted us in presenting to your reading public the outstanding features of our recent celebration of One Hundred and Twenty-five Years' service.

Your generous contribution of news space and the prominence you gave these accounts were certainly most effective. They proved of real value to the attendance and interest of our services.

Sincerely yours,
Rev. Fred Breckon
(minister).

LESSONS OF HISTORY

The Editor, Newmarket Era and Express: Today, in a food-hungry world, I buried 13 little pigs.

Of course, they were weaklings and would only have survived with extraordinary care; care which it would not have been practical today to give.

But actually today small pigs have no value, and weaned pigs about a quarter of their previous value. Which is bad, for pigs create prosperity (of a sort) in the basic industry—agriculture.

Apparently our leaders have not learned the lessons of history, for the Ontario countryside today shows neglect, bad fences, rotten buildings. In other words the cities are again benefitting at the expense of the soil.

This way fell the ancient civilizations.

Conrad J. Hauser,
Sharon, Nov. 15.

On Second Thought

By The Editor

This week's mail brought a letter from Morley McPhee, former manager of the Strand Theatre who was hospitalized with T.B. two years ago. Morley has now been discharged and is staying at Dutton with his parents for the time being.

Writes Morley: "The doctors advised no work till spring; although I am feeling pretty well, I am still weak." Morley and Mrs. McPhee plan a visit to Newmarket next month sometime so their friends will be seeing them.

Hearing from Morley, and knowing his ailment, makes a plug for those Christmas seals that the anti T.B. people have for putting on Christmas mail. The proceeds for the sale of those seals are used to maintain sanitariums and to carry on research against the disease. Make someone else's Christmas a little happier by buying them.

Principal W. J. Lockhart at Newmarket high school deserves some sort of bouquet for the easy manner in which this year's commencement exercises were conducted. It was an entirely pleasant evening. Knowing Mr. Lockhart, we can hear him saying that the credit belongs to the staff and assisting pupils. Whoever was responsible did a dandy job. It was pleasant sight to see the graduates on the platform with a background of gray drapes lit by colored lights.

This Christmas is going to present a problem for the weekly newspapers with the happy day falling as it does upon a Thursday. We're going to try and avoid complications by moving the publication date back a day each week through December. Our first December issue will be on Thursday, Dec. 4; the second on Wednesday, Dec. 10, the third on Tuesday, Dec. 16, and the Christmas issue on Monday, Dec. 22.

It's going to be difficult to shorten our working week this way but we think we can do it if we have the usual co-operation of correspondents and advertisers. We'll announce deadlines each week so that you won't forget.

A Bit of Fun

A Carolina mountaineer cornered a young sprout one evening and demanded, "See here. You been a-courtin' my daughter for three years. You got to tell me about your intentions. Be they honorable or dishonorable?" With a suddenly eager face, the young fellow asked, "You mean I got a choice?"

An enterprising motor concern was staging a preview of post-war models. One visitor pointed to the most expensive model and inquired, "If I bought this car by instalments, how long would it take me to pay for it?"

"That depends on how much you can afford to give each month," said the salesman, cautiously. "I think I could promote $3 a month," figured the prospect. "$3 a month!" echoed the salesman. "At that rate it would take you a hundred years to pay up." "So what?" said the young man. "It's worth it."

Gleanings From Weekly Press

The Peace River Record-Gazette is not concerned that settlement of the railway strike will cost everyone more money probably in the long run, so much as the important thing that the unions and the railways negotiated their difficulties on a national scale free from the political differences of nine separate provinces. "Credit for this action is due to unions and railways for the orderly manner they conducted negotiations, setting an example for other unions and reducing the hardship on both employee and employer as well as the public."

Discussing our economic troubles in Canada, which it holds may bring us to the brink of disaster if the "Ottawa planners" take a suggested move of devaluing the dollar, the Tweed, Ont., News thinks this will inevitably mean severe import controls. Says: "We cannot live within our own resources; this is being tried in Britain and the country is practically bankrupt. . . . Canada must export a big percentage of our wheat, our gold and our manufactured products if we are to beat a depression."

That's how they think, too? Says a pamphlet issued by the National Union of Railwaymen, entitled The Battle for Freedom, in part:

"Free government can survive only through the survival of free enterprise. On that survival, too, depends the life of the free labor movement, because organized trade unionism inevitably meets an early death under any form of dictatorship. It should be apparent, then, that the fate of free labor is tied in with free enterprise. But what the average worker needs to realize is that freedom of enterprise is not the sole prerogative of the owners and managers of industry. It is a freedom shared and one that should be zealously guarded by every Canadian worker and farmer. It is an economic freedom—the freedom of opportunity."

The Nanton, Alta., News goes to town on the longer headlines now in the feminine news, and in the editorial says that skirts have been long before and they've been short before and the results are pretty much the same . . . when they get tired of the particular style the fashions change. The French have a phrase for it, and they should know, "The more change there is, the more there is the same thing."

According to the Letter-Review of Fort Erie, Ont., removal of price control and subsidies on feed grain is bound to produce a perfectly normal further increase in many food prices, and any government which tries to stop this is going to be out of office as soon as the farmers get a chance at it. Quite obviously, what is going to create stress is not a general price increase, but rising prices for food which mean, unquestionably, increase in political friction between urban labor and the farmers. Canadian farmers have, in recent years, been deeply infected with the idea that those who process and distribute their food make huge profits, so that farmers could reasonably expect to get present or higher prices for food, without the cost of living in the city rising, but the facts are quite contrary.

Plumming for more immigration, the Rouyn-Noranda (Que.) Press argues: "Because she provided a haven for refugees and displaced persons over a period of centuries, England became the greatest country in the world and so remained for a long time."

Bits of interest around Canada: When Mrs. Sophie Nelson, Heronston, Alta., visited her sister at Muskegon, Mich., it was the first reunion of twins in 50 years. . . . an all time record in the North Battleford, Sask., fire department when the brigade finally got a call after 35 silent days. . . . an oddity: At Prince George, B.C., P. E. Wilson, K.C., appeared for the Crown on a murder charge and his father, Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson, sat on the bench. . . . At Drumheller, Alta., the Walford hotel uncovered a big stock of "jerries", old fashioned aids to plumbing, advertised them to the public free, first come first served. . . . At Admiral, Sask., a 24-year-old sow has brought 67 piglets into the world to help Canada fulfill her bacon contract with Britain. . . . for the second year in succession Pentteton, B.C., has no tax sale on local property. . . . breaking all North American records the new Abbotsford, B.C., aerie of the Eagles lodge has in three weeks 312 new members. . . . second crop of ripe raspberries on October 23 for Mr. Follows of Amherstburg, Ont. . . . The North Hastings, Ont., Review reports that on the home-site of Mr. Anderson at Coe Hill, buried in the rubble of a tornado demolished house was a volume of "Gone With the Wind" . . .

THAT'S DIFFERENT

Pat: Lend me a shovel to get my friend out of the bog.
Farmer: How far has he sunk down?
Pat: Up to his ankles.
Farmer: Can't he get out himself?
Pat: Ah, but he fell in head first.

Opinions Of Other Editors

AFTER ALL, THERE'S A LIMIT!
(Times Review, Fort Erie)

Current discussions by milk producers and distributors, portend an increase in the price of milk to the consumer amounting to as much as three cents a quart. Whether such a rise in price would be justified on the grounds of higher production costs must be left to more competent judges. This, however, is our firm conviction: the Canadian farmer has been taking full advantage of every opportunity to charge all the traffic will bear, and has now reached the point where he is close to pricing himself out of the market.

From the rural point of view, urban wages are excessive. Even so, those wages are what make possible unprecedented prices for many farm products. But the townsman's money is not unlimited; if some things cost more, he is likely to spend less on others—and so is his wife. Most small homes are operated, of necessity, on a strict budget—this much for rent, that much for food, and so on. Now, if the price of fluid milk jumps as much as three cents a quart, what is going to happen to the purchasing habits of such homes?

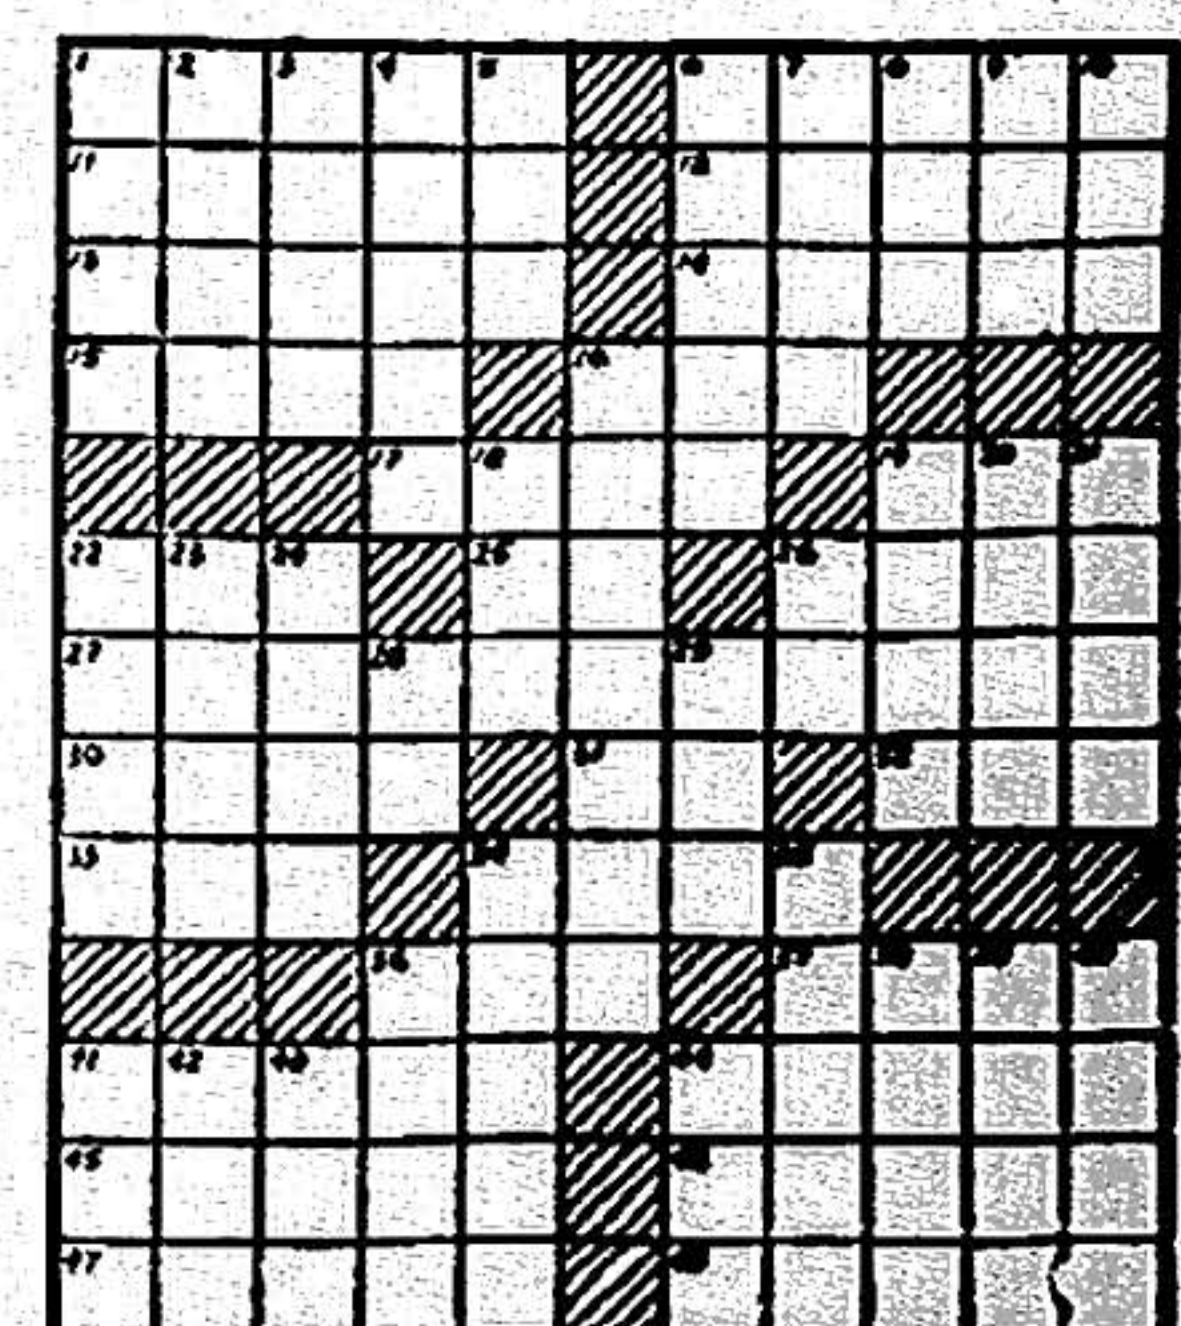

After all, cows' milk is not essential to human life, beneficial though it may be. In fact, any adult human being could probably get along for the remainder of his life without ingesting a single pint of fluid milk. Therefore, and without any claim to foreknowledge, we predict that, if the price of milk is raised to 19 cents a quart, there will be a tremendous decrease in consumption—so tremendous, in fact, as to scare the wits out of the dairy farmer. The reduced market for fluid milk may be such that he will wonder what to do with his production, and be willing to sell it at any price. That has happened before, and might happen again—if consumers cut their use of fluid milk by as much as 20 percent.

Flames Force Seven To Flee From Beds

King—Seven people were forced out of their home when fire swept through the farmhouse of Roy Haines early Monday morning. Haines and his two boys, Roy and Bruce, aged five and four, walked 700 yards barefoot to the nearest farm house in the frigid cold, after Mr. Haines had snatched them from the fire. Mrs. Haines rescued their baby daughter, Doreen, while he was trying to keep the small boys warm.

Also living in the house were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beckett. The seven people evicted by the fire have temporary accommodation at the home of A. A. Emmett, a neighbor.

Mr. Haines said that he and his family had been evicted from their home in Toronto and had come to King six weeks ago but because he had been so busy, had not had time to change his insurance.

The fire started in a clothes closet near the two sleeping boys. Mr. Haines said he was awakened by smoke and he rushed downstairs to get his sons from their room where flames were coming from a corner. The Aurora fire department arrived and poured water on the house while the two men were able to save a refrigerator from the kitchen.

Five new members and three transfers to Branch 426 were added to the roll at the general meeting which was held at the clubrooms on Monday night. Hunt Taylor presided.

It was decided that $5.00 per child be set aside as a present for each youngster whose father was killed during the war, or had died since.

Plans were discussed for the formation of a bugle band and the matter was placed in the hands of the executive committee.

The executive was also given the power by the general assembly to handle the Legion's participation in the current drive to send food to Britain.

The questionnaires on housing which were distributed at the general meeting must be completed as soon as possible and returned to the secretary Wm. LaParde.

The Ladies' Auxiliary is holding a Euchre and Bridge at the Club Rooms on Wednesday night, Dec. 3. There will be prizes and refreshments.

Rev. Father Thomas McCabe is still on the sick list. Victor Williams is still a patient at Kingston Military Hospital. Wm. Fines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Fines, is now at home after a lengthy stay at the same hospital.

Nomination night is drawing near so now is the time to be thinking of those who should be elected to the various offices.

Many questionnaires regarding the Christmas Party of Dec. 20 have not been returned. Complete yours at the earliest possible time and return to Jack Higginson. It would be too bad to disappoint some youngster on that big day.

N.V.A. News By TORCH BEARER

Tonight at 8 p.m. in the department of agriculture board room, 14 Botsford St., the town council is holding a special meeting to discuss rental housing. Top government officials will be present. No doubt the council will give their viewpoints on the project. All veterans are asked to attend this meeting as their presence may help a veteran to obtain suitable accommodation for himself and family.

A special executive meeting was held on Sunday, Nov. 23, at 2 p.m. The executive has decided to hold the November meeting on Thursday, Dec. 4, in the agricultural board room. This will be an open meeting to which all veterans are cordially invited regardless of affiliation. G. H. Parliament, superintendent of D.V.A., will be one of the guest speakers and his remarks will cover all phases of veterans' rehabilitation.

M. Searle, pensions' advocate for this district, will discuss pensions, so here is a golden opportunity for the veteran to receive first-hand information regarding pensions and rehabilitation. Both officials had been asked to be present on the night of November 27 and had accepted. When the rental housing project fell on the same evening, it was felt that a separate meeting would be more favorable. So come "Mr. Veteran" and see what the learned speakers have to offer.

The executive has recommended three resolutions to be passed on in the same evening: first resolution — Resolve that a full report on World War I, 1914-1918, canteen fund be published showing disbursements, breakdown of expenses, also rules and regulations governing the fund. Also that the fund be brought into line with present day conditions. We also would like to commend Mr. A. E. Tanning for his work in this connection.

Second resolution — Resolve that this convention endorse the views of Lieut.-Col. G. R. Philp and recommends to dominion command that united action on the part of veterans' organizations be contacted and a united effort be made to get more and better hospitalization for all veterans whether World War I or II veterans.

Third resolution — Resolve that in the opinion of Newmarket Veterans' Association pensions should be increased by a cost of living bonus, said bonus to be governed by the government rising scale of cost of living.

These resolutions if favorable will be handed to the three corps delegates to be brought to the floor of the Ontario convention being held December 12 and 13 in the Royal York hotel. The three accredited delegates must hold in their possession a signed proxy from each member they desire to register a vote for. Blank proxy forms will be on hand at this meeting for the use of all corps members. Your presence is essential at this meeting so your delegates have strong voting power.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES

Aurora Co-ops have held two practices and manager Leonard Simmons is well pleased with the showing made. Coach Bill Capel appears to know all the answers and he's driving the youngsters at a pace that has the kids on their toes all the way. There were 22 out to the first showing and close to 30 on Sunday. Newcomers to catch the eye were Bill Boychhoff, the ace defenceman of Bradford juniors who wants to play with Aurora; Bill Dale, Schomberg; Mason, last year with Bell A.C.; Kearns and Hopper. Two youngsters from Mary Lake settlement who played for one of the De La Salle teams last season made their appearance on Sunday and looked good. Jack Atkinson, whose playing certificate is claimed by Stouffville, was with Aurora on Sunday and there's every possibility that the big fellow will be back with Aurora. Simmons points out that the O.H.A. has issued a ruling that will keep Atkinson with Aurora regardless of mileage if the club so wants. There will be no coercion, however, and Jack will make up his own mind but the "welcome" sign is out so far as Aurora retain Atkinson. Another item that pleases Simmons and may not suit Messrs. Haskett, Newmarket, and Snowball, Stouffville, is that in the case of players residing on a well travelled highway where there is no team, the boys have a lee-way of five miles in choosing the team with which they will play. Aurora is thus not necessarily hemmed in by the other entries. The ruling comes from secretary Billy Hewitt of the O.H.A.

Conventions carded for the near future are the O.M.H.A. meeting in Toronto on Saturday, Nov. 29, with Ken Waters, an officer with the Queen's Yorks, slated to succeed Harold Luke, Oshawa, as president, and the O.H.A. jam session at the Royal York on Saturday, Dec. 6. Both meetings promise to be the largest in history and the usual list of familiar faces will be on hand. Brampton, where a rink has been missing for years, has finally decided on a memorial recreation centre to cost 100 grand and an artificial ice plant will be the main feature. The drive is on now for funds. If anyone is interested Brampton and Weston are providing the two best recreation programs right now for many miles. Cobourg, where the arena collapsed last winter, has plans for a $77,000 structure also of the artificial variety. The municipality is providing $50,000 and the rest is being privately subscribed. Simcoe, Sault Ste. Marie, Peterboro and Orillia all have passed the advanced stage in getting artificial ice. The money is assured. Hespeler opens its plant next month. New Hamburg, one of Ontario's hockey hotbeds where the arena disappeared by fire a few weeks ago, has the ball in motion already for a new structure. We hope these news items may awaken some responsive cord somewhere in North York. There isn't one arena from Markham to Uxbridge to Sutton to Bradford to Bolton and Richmond Hill that adequately fills the present winter demands for recreation. That's quite a bit of territory.

Rural hockey has been organized for the south area of the county with Agincourt, Wexford, Scarboro Junction, Highland Creek and L'Amoreaux in a compact league. Minor hockey, with a definite eye to the future, is arranged for Markham twp. with midget and bantam teams arranged for Markham, Milliken, Stouffville, Hagerman's Corners and Unionville. The latter centre combines with Markham in one series. Doug James is the leading spirit in the idea and Don Lewis, Stouffville, Hal Coulter, Unionville and Bill Prasby, Hagerman's, are the leading lights. Except for minor hockey, Jimmy Grainger of the Hill opines that there'll be no hockey in Richmond Hill this winter. James will be heavily sought after for referee duties and in addition will be doing a bit of curling while anxiously awaiting the '48 lawn bowling season. Lees O'ram, one of the finest tennis players in the district, has been handing out cigars and he announces a candidate has arrived for the 1957 Canadian Davis Cup squad. It's a boy.

Traffic officer Cecil Dean, Bradford, a good friend to all minor sports in the district, has been transferred to Parry Sound. Ken Tupling, Bradford, will fight it out with Johnny Palmer, Grant Blight and Bill Mulholland for the goal tending job on Newmarket Gapco's junior team. Coaches Merv Broughton and Harry Thoms were well pleased with the workout at Barrie on Sunday when 20 candidates were dropped over the boards.
